*Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
Hail our life, our sweetness and our hope.*

*To thee do we cry,
poor banished children of Eve.
To thee do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.*

*Turn then, most gracious Advocate,
thine eyes of mercy towards us,
and after this our exile,
show unto us the Blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.*

*Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God,
that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.*

OK, the washing is done, you've got the sun cream packed, you've checked that all the documents you need are in place and you are ready for the off! The holiday season is with us once again and I hope that wherever you are going that you will have a wonderful time. That you will meet interesting people and that you will have a whole raft of new experiences that will be the basis of some lovely memories when you return to us.

As most of you know I choose not to go away in the summer. The parish gets really quiet and that enables me to catch up with all the little jobs that tend to go on to the back burner throughout the year. I find that a 'staycation' works for me and I know that a good number of people in the parish feel the same way.

So, whether you are off to pastures new or whether you will enjoy the bliss which is North Harrow in the summer months, I hope that the desired outcome will be the same. Just to slow down, relax and take life at an easier pace. This is really necessary. It seems to me that people are working harder than ever. Our bosses (and yes that includes the church for me) expect us to do more and more with fewer resources and this can lead to feelings of frustration. So, it's important just to stand back, to take a proverbial breath and then to get things into perspective.

This helps us to realise that life is not just about work or fulfilling all the responsibilities that come our way. But that life is also about enjoying this beautiful planet that God has given us and it's about making the most of the relationship that we have.

Whatever you are doing and wherever you are going have a restful holiday, spend quality time with the people that you love and remember that you will be held in the prayers of the parish community.

As usual over the summer months, things will be a little less formal. There will be no singing at Mass and shorter sermons. Do please step forward if you see that we need to make up the numbers of ministers and readers over the holiday period.

Fr Shaun.
