SUMMER IN WHICH CITY?

As we look to the month to come don't forget that Wednesday 15th August is the great feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and a holyday of obligation. Therefore there will be no mass on Tuesday 14th August but masses on Wednesday 15th August at 9.30am and 7pm. I remember being on World Youth Day in Cologne, Germany thirteen years ago and celebrating this great feast in one of the most spectacular churches in the world ...with quite a few others as you can see from the picture. Many people are away at that time of year and no doubt there will be visitors here as well during the month. But whichever city, village or beach you spend that feast day in enjoy the change of pace and break from the routine that August brings!

We will have our usual mass schedule but with no Sunday musicians; please stand in for any readers or Extraordinary Ministers who are away. This will also be our last newsletter until September and you will find details of all the Masses and Mass intentions for the coming weeks on the reverse.

Every blessing for the month ahead

Fr Graham
